RELATIONSHIPS

“The heart of man plans his way, but the Lord establishes his steps.” Proverbs 16:9

Recent events have reminded me of how uncertain the future can be. Families in the Beauregard community got up on Sunday morning, March 3rd, and began what they thought would be just another Sunday with their normal Sunday activities. Hours later many of them had lost their lives, and others had lost everything they had, except their life. Life holds uncertainties for all of us. Sometimes we find ourselves so busy living that we don't take time to appreciate the life we are living. I was recently confronted with a situation that brought this home to me. I was diagnosed with cancer. I started a journey that I had not anticipated and was not prepared for. When you start a journey such as this, you realize how insignificant many things are, which at one time you thought were so important. You suddenly wish you had spent more time building relationships than you did acquiring things. You see the importance of the support of family and friends, which none of your things can give you. I have been on this journey now for three months, and the love of family and friends has given me joy that I never got out of all my things. We are sometimes unaware of all the relationships that we are building as we journey through life, and we are blessed by the concern and support shown by others when we experience these unexpected circumstances.

I am sure many of you are wondering what this has to do with Four Seasons FCU. Well, many of you have been the ones who I have been blessed to have express your concerns and to offer your prayers and support. That is what makes a local credit union so special. We are more like family than a financial institution and its customers. It seems that there are fewer and fewer local businesses which are still local. I am sure many of you are aware that just recently, one of the community banks in Lee County was acquired by a big regional bank and is now under the big bank's guidance as to how they serve their customers. Four Seasons FCU was established here in Lee County and has always been owned and controlled by its members. We are family, and we want to be here for you when life takes an unexpected turn. Credit unions started out with the philosophy of 'people helping people' and the goal of not for profit, but for service. Four Seasons FCU has tried to remain true to this philosophy and goal. We started here, we are still here, and our goal is to be here tomorrow for you. I pray that we will continue to build relationships with each of you, and I want each of you to know that these relationships have been a real blessing in my life. May the Lord bless each of you!

Sincerely,

Ronnie Lipham
